

DECLARATION OF USE
MADE UNDER THE *PLANNING ACT 2016

I, the Honourable Cameron Dick MP, Minister for State Development, Manufacturing, Infrastructure and Planning, declare in accordance with section 275O of the Planning Act 2016 (Planning Act) the following uses for the COVID-19 emergency applicable event, previously declared under the Planning Act:

1. Shop defined as:

Shop means use of premises primarily for the sale of goods ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption such as food, toiletries and medicine (whether or not requiring a prescription).

To remove any doubt, the definition of shop for the purposes of this notice does not include the following uses as defined under the Planning Regulation 2017:

- i. adult store,
- ii. agricultural supplies store,
- iii. betting shop,
- iv. food and drink outlet,
- v. garden centre,
- vi. hardware and trade supplies,
- vii. health care services,
- viii. market,
- ix. outdoor sales,
- x. service station (excluding shop component),
- xi. showroom.

2. The following uses where directly necessary for the supply of goods to a shop:

Warehouse defined as:

warehouse means the use of premises for—

- (a) storing or distributing goods, whether or not carried out in a building; or
- (b) the wholesale of goods, if the use is ancillary to the use in paragraph (1).

Transport depot defined as:

transport depot means the use of premises for—

- (a) storing vehicles, or machinery, that are used for a commercial or public purpose; or
- (b) cleaning, repairing or servicing vehicles or machinery, if the use is ancillary to the use in paragraph (1).

This notice applies to all of the State of Queensland and has effect from 20 March 2020 for the applicable event period.
